28. VIVA VOCE NOTIFICATION

28.1 As soon as the Viva Voce Board is constituted by the University, the Convener of the Viva Voce Board in consultation with the other examiner shall fix a date for the Public Viva Voce examination. The public viva voce examination shall be conducted only in the University Departments for the candidates who have registered with the Research Guides/Supervisors in the University Departments. In the case of other candidates, the public viva voce examination shall be conducted in the recognized Research Centres/Post Graduate Departments where the candidates have registered for the Ph.D. programme.

The Research Guide/Supervisor shall in consultation with the Head of the University Department/Principal of the Research Centre/Principal of the Post Graduate Department fix the date for the public Viva Voce examination and a public notice be issued to as many Departments/Colleges as possible. The evidence for sending such notice to various Departments/Colleges should be submitted along with the public Viva-Voce Examination Report. When the information for public Viva-Voce examination is sent, the Research Guide/Supervisor shall be authorized to organize the public Viva-Voce examination for which the faculty members, research scholars, public and other experts from this University and other Universities may be invited. A notice shall also be displayed on the Department Notice Board 15 days in advance of the date of public Viva Voce examination. A copy of the thesis shall be made available to the public at the Department for reference at least 15 days prior to the date of the public Viva-Voce Examination.

28.2 GUIDELINES FOR CONDUCTING PUBLIC VIVA VOCE

The public viva voce examination shall be conducted only on a working day and during working hours within 30 days from the constitution of the public Viva Voce Board. The evaluation reports of examiners shall be kept with the Research Guide/Supervisor. A list of attendees with their names, designation, address and signatures shall be obtained and sent along with the report and recommendations of the Viva Voce Board. The Convener of the public Viva Voce Board and Head of the University Department/Research Centre/Post Graduate Department shall be responsible for the conduct of the public viva voce and shall certify to this effect.

On the day of public Viva Voce examination at the appointed time, the Convener shall proceed to the examination hall and introduce the Ph.D. candidate to the audience and the research topic. The Convener shall also introduce himself/herself and introduce the External Examiner and the Observer (applicable only for Research Centres/Post Graduate Departments of affiliated colleges). The Convener shall also explain the mode of conduct of public Viva Voce Examination.

The Research Scholar shall present his/her thesis (with the support of power point) within 30 minutes indicating its relevance, importance, methodology, limitations and findings, etc.

After the presentation, the External Examiner and the Observer (applicable only for Research Centres/Post Graduate Departments of affiliated colleges) shall be given time to raise his/her questions or the clarifications needed. Then, the Convener shall read the questions raised by the Examiners one by one and elicit replies from the candidate. Thereafter, the audience shall be permitted to ask questions/clarifications one by one. The total time for questions/clarifications shall be limited to 30 minutes. When all the questions are answered, the public Viva Voce Board shall conclude the examination as closed and prepare a report showing the performance of the candidate. The report shall be submitted along with the recommendations whether the candidate has performed satisfactorily or not to the Controller of Examinations on the same day duly signed by the members of the public Viva Voce Board.

A candidate who submits a satisfactory thesis but fails to satisfy the Viva-Voce Board may on the recommendations of the Viva-Voce Board shall be permitted to submit himself/herself for a public Viva-Voce examination second time within three months of the date of public Viva-Voce examination. A candidate who fails to satisfy the Viva-Voce Board for the second time will have his/her thesis finally rejected.

The recommendations of the Viva-Voce Board for the award of Ph.D. degree along with all the evaluation reports shall be placed before the Syndicate for approval. After the approval of the recommendations of the Viva-Voce Board by the Syndicate, the result shall be declared and the degree shall be conferred.

The date of public viva-voce examination as approved by the Syndicate shall be reckoned as the date of award of Ph.D. degree to the Research Scholar.

29. DEPOSITORY OF THESIS WITH LIBRARY

After the evaluation, the Research Guide/Supervisor shall ensure that the hard and soft copy of the thesis is to be sent to the Library of the University/University Department/Research Centre/Post Graduate Department concerned.

Following the successful completion of the evaluation process and the announcement of the award of the Ph.D. Degree, the institution concerned shall submit an electronic copy of the Ph.D. thesis to the INFLIBNET for hosting the same so as to make it accessible to all institutions and researchers.

30. PUBLICATION OF THESIS

After the award of Ph.D. degree, the thesis may be published by the candidate in the form of a book with the permission of the University and the candidate has to submit 5 copies of the book published to the University Library.

If the two external examiners unanimously recommended the thesis fit for publication, then it may be published within two years after the date of award of the degree by the Syndicate. The applicant needs to submit a formal request to this University for publication of his/her thesis. The candidate shall be permitted to publish his/her thesis only after obtaining the permission from the Syndicate of this University.

31. SPECIAL PROVISIONS

- 31.1 If the Research Guide/Supervisor is transferred/appointed and shifted to another recognized University/Research Centre/College, he/she may continue to guide and supervise the student if substantial work had been done already by the candidate as certified by the Research Guide/Supervisor. If no substantial work had been done, the Research Scholar may request for a change of Research Guide/Supervisor and this may be granted on the basis of the merit of the case after due consideration by the authorities.
- 31.2 If a college teacher registered for Ph.D. as a Part-Time Scholar, selected under Faculty Development Programme of UGC, may be permitted to continue the research as a Full-Time Scholar in the Department where the Guide/Supervisor works.
